

Work is closed

The government has said all services must be closed for two weeks.

This means that work is closed.

Only the doctors and nurses are in work.

This means I will stay at home until work is open again.

If I feel upset about this I can talk to the staff or my family or friends.